MEMO ENDORSED

Re: United States v. Osei Jeremiah
08 Cr. 74 (SCR)

Dear Judge Robinson:

Mr. Jeremiah was sentenced on May 1, 2008, bringing the above referenced matter to a conclusion. Prior to sentencing, Mr. Jeremiah was supervised by Pre-trial Services and as a condition of his release he was required to surrender his passport. His passport was surrendered on December 3, 2007, and it remains with Pre-trial Services to date. In light of the fact that Mr. Jeremiah has now been sentenced to a term of probation I am respectfully requesting that his passport be released from Pre-trial Services at this time and returned to Mr. Jeremiah. I have informed Mr. Jeremiah that even if this Court permits the return of his passport at this time, he must clear any travel arrangements with his probation officer.

On the date of sentence I discussed this request with AUSA Nicholas McQuaid and he has no objection. Ms. Cynthia Labrovic of Pre-trial Services is also aware that this request is being made in that she informed Mr. Jeremiah to have counsel make application to the Court.

Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

Renée C. Hill, Esq.

SO ORDERED:
